

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

It's time to dig out that fancy western dress – the historic Plaza Hotel's Black Tie and Blue Jeans Annual Charity Ball is geared up for New Year's Eve at the historic Plaza Hotel in Las Vegas, New Mexico. Proceeds from this exciting event will benefit Samaritan House.

Each New Year's Eve, the historic Plaza Hotel hosts a party that fills the entire hotel, featuring live entertainment, party favors, chair massages, palm readers and psychics – a wild mélange of fun and activity that will culminate in a champagne toast, enchilada buffet and balloon drop in the hotel's new Ilfeld Ballroom & throughout the hotel to celebrate the New Year. A silent auction will be also be held, and cash bars will be available. Tickets for the party, which starts at 9 pm, are $15.

For those who want a more elegant approach to celebrating the New Year, the Plaza Hotel is offering a special dinner menu in the Landmark Grill from 5:00 to 9:00 pm. The hotel chef has prepared a wonderful medley of gourmet treats, including cold sliced lobster salad with mandarin dressing, Beef Wellington with mushroom duxelles and wild mushroom sauce, duck with a green peppercorn sauce, and roast rack of lamb with mint jelly. Dinner is $50 per person (includes tax & gratuity). Reservations are required.

The hotel is offering room packages that include dinner and the Charity Ball festivities starting at $129 per night per person with a two person minimum including breakfast. Suites and larger rooms are available; call the hotel for additional information.

Lovingly restored and listed on the National Register of Historic Places, the Plaza Hotel offers a rare glimpse of Old West elegance. From our hotel you'll see a bustling downtown frozen in time, since historic Las Vegas is about the same size it was when Teddy Roosevelt's Rough Riders held their first reunion at the Plaza Hotel in 1899. Las Vegas is not trendy southwestern, it's absolutely authentic.

Enjoy a step back in time and join us on December 31 for a good cause and for the best New Year's Eve party in New Mexico.

For additional information, please contact:

Troy Denison
Director of Sales
Historic Plaza Hotel
505-425-3591 ext. 501
e-mail: sales@plazahotel-nm.com